INTRODUCTION

The Way to Go Suffolk travel pack includes, useful websites, discounts and local information on sustainable travel in and around Ipswich. This comprises of information and guidance on walking, cycling, taking the bus, train, and car sharing.

THE WAY TO GO Suffolk

The Way To Go Suffolk is a Suffolk County Council initiative to encourage active travel in the County. Transport can sometimes be an issue, whether its cost or an increase in congestion making it difficult for you to get from A to B. We can help overcome the barriers with travel planning advice and guidance. Our website provides details on the travel options and highlights the associated financial and health benefits.

Claim your complimentary £100 voucher

Your household is able to claim one voucher to the value of £100 which can be redeemed for either money towards cycle or bus ticket purchases. Visit our website to fill out the form to redeem this:

www.thewaytogosuffolk.org.uk

If you would like to use the voucher for bus travel, the £100 will provide you with five Adult Flexi5Day tickets, valid for use in the Ipswich & Stowmarket zone on the Firstbus 88 service. Each Flexi5Day ticket, available via the Firstbus app, contains five individual Day tickets that can be activated and used within 14 days. You will receive five individual codes that will allow you to get each bundle of tickets when you need them.

If you are interested in receiving a personalised travel plan for your regular journey to work or school, email us at:

SUFFOLK ON BOARD

There are many benefits when it comes to taking the bus. Not having the stress of driving in traffic during your daily commute, not having the upfront costs cars come with, meaning you can catch up on work, read, listen to music, or just relax without feeling the stress of rushing to get to your destination.

Taking the bus can also mean you may have to walk to and from the bus which can help towards leading a healthier lifestyle.

www.suffolkonboard.com provides an online journey planner which includes all other areas of travel, including a personalised journey planner, school transport options, trains, walking times and distances between bus stops if necessary.

Easy to read timetables and help sheets to familiarise yourself on how to catch the bus are also available to freely download, as well as:

- Reading timetables
- Downloading timetables
- Train timetables
- View details of upcoming changes to passenger transport services in Suffolk
- Search for a bus timetable by service number
- Find out more information on school term dates

To follow live updates from Suffolk on Board you can follow them on Twitter @suffolkonboard

SUFFOLK CAR SHARE

The Suffolk Car Share scheme is freely available to those in Suffolk who sign up as either a driver or passenger. Any journey whether it be to work, taking the children to school, visiting friends or a social trip can benefit from car sharing.

Sign up for free as a driver or passenger. You don't have to share every day and with fuel prices regularly fluctuating, it's as good a time as any to cut down your fuel bill.

Thousands of people who travel in and around Suffolk have joined the scheme and car sharing can save you time as well as many environmental benefits.

Sign up today www.suffolkcarshare.com

For further details, use the calculator on the website to see how much you could save. Once matched with someone travelling your way, you can message them either via the website or through the Liftshare app and start sharing as little or as often as you like.

WORKING FROM HOME

COVID-19 has changed the way many people work with lots of employees now working from home.

Take a look at the NHS guidance on working from home. Below are the steps included which are taken from the NHS website www.nhs.uk/every-mind-matters/coronavirus/simple-tips-to-tackle-working-from-home/

- 1 Set and stick to a routine – without steady schedules, the lines between work and personal time can get blurred and be stressful to get right. Follow your normal sleep and work patterns if you can, and stay consistent.
- 2 Make a dedicated workspace – If you can, find a quiet space away from people and distractions like the TV (or the kitchen, when you feel snacky). – to read more on how to set up your workspace correctly, visit www.nhs.uk/live-well/healthy-body/how-to-sit-correctly/
- 3 Give yourself a break – Making time for breaks is important to help manage feelings of stress. Try to take lunch and regular screen breaks, and give yourself time to concentrate on something else so you feel more focussed when you return. Even just 5 to 10 minutes of short breaks each hour can really help your productivity too. To find out more on home workout videos, visit www.nhs.uk/better-health/get-active/home-workout-videos/
- 4 Stay connected – While working from home has its benefits, you may also feel more isolated. In and out of work, human interaction matters so schedule video calls and pick up the phone instead of emailing. If you're struggling with working at home, speak to your colleagues or manager about your concerns.
- 5 Set boundaries – Setting boundaries with other members of your household is key to mental wellbeing while working at home. Have a discussion about your needs, especially with family. Remind them that you still have work to do and need quiet time, and share your schedule
- 6 Think longer term – You may be continuing to work from home for a while, so think about ways you could improve how you work while at home. Try to explore how you work with others. Are there different ways to talk online or new software you could use?
- 7 Be kind to yourself – Be kind to yourself and acknowledge that you might not be as productive as you usually would be. Be realistic about what you can achieve given the circumstances and relax when your work is done.
